Sandy Sessink is a world renown Morgan trainer and equitation instructor who began her career at the famed Carousel Stables in 1974, the largest Morgan show barn in the country at that time and home of many World Champions. For over 20 years, she owned and operated Old Orchard Farm in South Lyon, Michigan, turning out such well known riders as Rebecca Kelce Gruenberg, Mary Carlton, Jessica Cavanaugh, Stacy Hennessey and countless others. She was the first instructor to train a Morgan Triple Crown Champion Saddle Seat Equitation rider (UPHA Challenge Cup, AMHA Gold Medal and World Champion Saddle Seat Equitation) and she did this two years in a row. Over 150 World Champion horses and riders adorn her accomplishments and she has been a USEF Morgan R Judge for over 25 years, with assignments that have included four Morgan Grand Nationals, 11 USEF Saddle Seat Equitation Finals at the American Royal, and many World Cup Trials. She coached the winning "Team Morgan" riders against the South Africans in 2009 and judged the World Cup Saddle Seat Equitation Finals in South Africa in 2006.

This is your opportunity to ask questions, get answers, and to work hand in hand with one of our industry's most successful and best instructors. Don't miss this terrific weekend!

SATURDAY EVENING

We will enjoy a presentation by Sandy called "Making the Right Impression in the Show Ring". From preparing the horse and rider for the best possible outcome, to training and shoeing, proper attire and proper fit, equipment, turnout and mental preparation and attitude, this presentation will put the finishing touches on your weekend of mastery and you'll be ready to attack the 2017 show season with your best foot forward!
